

There are good reasons for the regulations regarding media ownership: consolidation does not serve the public interest, it only serves the profit-driven interests of a handful of corporate entities. On June 2nd, please do not take any action which will lead to further deregulation.